

CELEBRATING A MONUMENTAL YEAR IN DANISH FILM!

The Danish Film Academy has announced nominations for this year's ROBERT awards. It will be a night of celebration and consolidation of both the quality and diversity in Danish film and TV, when the Academy hosts the ROBERT awards for the 31st time on Sunday 1st of February 2015.

With all of 19 feature films in the running for the many ROBERT statuettes, it is a testimony of a film-year of diversity and quality. There is much to salute and celebrate in Danish film! With 16 nominations Lars von Triers Nymphomaniac Director's Cut is nicely represented, but the competition is fierce from Mikkel Nørgaard's The Absent One, Niels Arden Oplev's Speed Walking, Bille August's Silent Heart, and Jonas Alexander Arnby's When Animals Dream, all in line for a slew of awards. Overall the nominations are spread out on most of the 19 participating film.

The contenders for Best Feature Film are The Absent One, Speed Walking, The Sunfish, Nymphomaniac Director's Cut and Silent Heart, while the best director will be found among Bille August, Lars von Trier, Mikkel Nørgaard, Niels Arden Oplev or Søren Balle. The Best Children & Youth Film will be found among Antboy: Revenge of The Red Fury, Speed Walking, On The Edge, When Animals Dream and Flow.

In the Best Actress category first time nominee Danica Curcic faces four former Robert winners – Bodil Jørgensen, Charlotte Gainsbourg, Ghita Nørby and Sidse Babett Knudsen. Likewise Henrik Birch is the one first timer among the Best Actor and nods towards facing Mikael Persbrandt, Morten Grunwald, Nikolaj Lie Kaas and Stellan Skarsgård.

The Danish TV-productions will also be honoured at the ROBERT awards, and among this year's Best TV Series, The Legacy (1), 1864 and Dicte (II) are in a position to win the most awards, closely followed by The Seaside Hotel and Bankerot. For nominated documentaries, shorts and more see full list below.

It is now up to the 1650 members of The Danish Film Academy to vote for the winners in all categories.

ROBERT AWARDS will be held on Sunday 1st of February 2015 from 5:30pm at the Tivoli Hotel & Congress Center.
